

June 18, 2015

PRESS RELEASE

ANCA® World Autism Festival™ - Vancouver, BC

April 2nd 2015, World Autism Awareness Day, UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon announced a Call to Action for businesses to support Autistic Abilities in the workplace.

The 6th annual ANCA® World Autism Festival™ to be hosted in Vancouver at BEST WESTERN PLUS Chateau Granville this October 1-6, 2015 spotlights the abilities and talents of the International Autistic Community. Nominees representing twenty-five countries come together to celebrate and demonstrate Autistic Abilities via award presentations, live entertainment, hands-on workshops, networking opportunities and partnership building. During the festival performances by the Autistic community will be held at the Performance Works Theatre on Granville Island.

“AWAF spotlights the innovative and creative abilities of the autistic community and its partners; working together to create a better more accepting world for everyone. The support and recognition from businesses, government, media and the diplomatic corps demonstrates this approach to be the way of the future.” Leonora Gregory-Collura, AWAFF President and Co-Founder

Limited Seating – for tickets please visit <http://www.naturallyautistic.com/>

For more information:

Email: anca@naturallyautistic.com or naturallyautistic@gmail.com

View our videos on Vimeo:

FILM TRAILER - CONNECTED: A film About Autistic People, filmed at the 5th annual AWAFF event in Edinburgh, Scotland <https://vimeo.com/117684159>

PR VIDEO - “We Are ANCA” <https://vimeo.com/112435540>

ANCA® World Autism Festival™

Naturally Autistic ANCA, P.O. Box 1658, Gibsons, B.C., V0N 1V0, Canada

Website www.naturallyautistic.com P 604-886-5720 F 604-886-5720

Email anca@naturallyautistic.com